

Processing instructions – column shuttering: wall

The shuttering is to be braced against existing walls as shown in the illustration. The shuttering must be flat against the wall. Cavities between shuttering and wall must be closed by the customer.